

The DAVIS HISTORY TRAVELING LIBRARY

The Davis History Traveling Library is a mobile collection of fifteen milestone works on the history of Davis. The items are arranged and numbered in the order of their publication over the years 1969 to the present. Please feel free to leaf through these works and to take a copy of the list of them that includes their Yolo County library call numbers.

This library is available for viewing at a variety of locations throughout the county. If you are interested in borrowing any of the items, please contact the Yolo County Library at (707) 756-2222. For more information on the library, please contact the Yolo County Library at (707) 756-2222.
